

MORE POLITICAL INFORMATION

The News seems to have been more or less staggered by the showing in the Journal of administrative economy made by the Fusion party since it came into office.

It attempts to break the force of the Journal's statements by showing that most of the big cuts and saving in state expenses were accomplished by the Republican legislature of 1891.

If the editor of the News were not something of a tenderfoot in Nevada, he would not have fallen back on that particular legislature for his figures.

It was a standing joke throughout the state that the cuts made by that particular legislature were for the benefit of the Fusion party officials who were to succeed them.

The republicans had enjoyed a long lease of power in Nevada and they had conducted their administration with the most unbridled extravagance.

The taxpayers grew weary of the high taxes and lavish expenditures of public money and were clamoring for a change.

The silver sentiment was sweeping over the state and the republican legislature of 1891 realized that it would be the last time for some years to come, for they plainly deserved the hanging on the wall.

The members discussed and decided to make a great showing of economy by cutting down the salaries of their successors in office.

They had for years previous the opportunities for making those same records for economy but they let them pass by as they had no intention of indulging in economies which would have to be practiced by their own party. There had been also over $200,000 stolen bodily by the republican treasurer from the school fund, and an easy going republican legislature passed a bill releasing the bondsmen from paying the shortage, thus allowing the loss to fall upon the taxpayers.

In order to further cripple the incoming administration they also allowed the public buildings to fall into the worst stages of disrepair, that they might make a false showing of economy and then throw the expense of repairing upon their successors.

This miserable policy cost the state twice as much to remedy and the extra expense fell upon the taxpayers.

The State Prison and Asylum were the worst examples of this false economy practiced for a purpose by the republicans.

In spite of all this contemptible jobbery the Fusion party conducted a business administration, effected further reductions, and reduced the tax rate to a lower point than it ever had been for twenty years.

Ormsby County has more at stake this year in the legislature than it has had for many years. There is a deep rooted feeling all over the state that the University should be moved here from Reno, and it is quite likely that the southern counties will demand it. The removal of the university would mean a great deal to Carson City and Reno can well afford to give way for the good of the institution. It will help Carson and not injure Reno in the slightest.

In such a crisis Carson City will need experienced men on deck.

In electing Robert Logan to the senate it will make no mistake. He has served with distinction for several sessions in the lower house and he has the ripe experience which will be a tower of strength to Ormsby in the senate.

Assisting him in the house will be William Smith, D. E. Milligan, and George Brown, all bright and active young men who have the interests of this county at heart. They are all well known in this community and no one questions their ability or integrity. They are men who can do much this forthcoming session and should be elected by handsome majorities.

The signs are that the legislature will be Fusion, and Ormsby county should see that its delegation is in full harmony with the rest of the body of lawmakers.

THREE MEN WILL ARREST INSURANCE AGENTS KILLED

Report Reaches Here Of Shooting Of Rushers By Indian Police-Impossible To Verify

Reports reached this city today to the effect that three men were killed last night on the Walker Reservation.

According to this report they attempted to take time by the forelock and squat on locations ahead of time. The Indian police attempted to drive them back over the line and in the fight that followed three were killed, whether all prospectors or not is not stated. The report is given little credence.

It is also reported that a man was shot last night at Buck station in a free for all fight over horses, but this report could not be confirmed.

The Walker Reservation was thrown open at noon today and hundreds of miners and prospectors, speculators and adventurers made a grand rush for the known mineral bearing belt inside the line.

Every man expects to get a mine, but it is known that less than 200 claims might be filed on mineral bearing ground in the district opened for settlement. Trouble is feared and the reservation authorities have taken some precautions, whether enough to insure peace or not remains to be seen.

Seventeen locations of water rights were filed at the office of the state engineer in as many minutes today and both land offices expect a rush as soon as the evening train from the south arrives.

AY-BANE-A GUBE GIRL

Tilly Olson and his "Ay-bane-a-gube girl" talk made a decided hit at the New Grand theatre yesterday afternoon and last evening playing to two good audiences.

The company is considerably better than the average company which nowadays essays to play Swedish comedies, which in recent years, for the most part, have degenerated somewhat from the original standards when Ole Olson and Yon Yonson were really popular. The fact that the principal comedy work is entrusted to a high-toned, honest Swedish girl rather than to the same sort of a Swedish man lends a bit of novelty to the production.

Emily Erickson Green has the title role. She does some really good comedy work and is a favorite with her audience throughout the performance. -Stout City Journal.

HOW'S YOUR PIANO?

W. P. Stewart, the reliable piano and organ salesman, tuner and repairer, is receiving orders at Steinmetz' drug store, Steinway & Sons; A. B. Chase; Emerson; Estey and other pianos sold on easy payments at cash price.

R. H. Peale of San Francisco arrived this morning.

Mrs. W. W. Beemer returned this morning from a visit to Reno.

Many women fortune seekers were present at the Walker Lake reservation today. Trust a woman to be on hand on bargain day.

Recently Insurance Commissioner Davis received communication from G. R. Schogrum, manager of the International Policy Holders Committee calling his attention to the manner in which the Mutual Life insurance company of New York was hiring agents on the money of the policy holders to canvass the country for proxies on behalf of the present corrupt administration.

The committee, of which Alton B. Parker is the president, held that this was a violation of the Armstrong law, and asked the Commissioner of Nevada to restrain the insurance company from proceeding on illegal lines in violation of the Armstrong laws. After ascertaining that agents of the insurance company were in Carson City soliciting votes for the administration ticket, he wired the president of the Mutual Life in New York that such complaints had been made, and notified him that if his company continued to do business in Nevada it must obey the laws of New York.

The laws of Nevada read that all laws governing the conduct of a company in a state where it is incorporated are in force in the State of Nevada.

Under this provision of the statutes, Sheriff Kinney was ordered to arrest any agent of the New York Mutual Life soliciting proxies in Ormsby county, with a view of making a test case.

For a couple of weeks past Commissioner Davis and the Secretary of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce have been investigating the settlements made by the various insurance companies in connection with the San Francisco disaster.

The chamber of commerce has been compiling these settlements for many months, and Commissioner Davis received sufficient data from these compilations to get a pretty accurate line on the sound and unsound companies that are licensed to do business in this State; but will take no positive action until the records are completed and in his hands, which will be in about two weeks.

BRIEF PARAGRAPHS

Claude M. Smith, mining recorder of Nevada county returned this morning to his home in Goldfield.

CAMPAIGN DANCE AT EMPIRE

On Saturday evening the Fusion candidates on the county ticket will have a public speaking and dance at Empire. There will be music and oratory and a general jollification to wind up with a free for all ball. All Empire will be there and people from the surrounding country. Everybody is invited.

This is a lively week socially; two balls, a theatre, a concert and a young peoples' entertainment being the leading features.

Poster, the weather prophet, says that November will be a bad weather month, with three great storm periods.

Colorado capitalists are contemplating the establishment of a hotel and bank at Austin.

Lumber in Tonopah is $20 per thousand less than it was a year ago.

Mrs. J. C. Hayes and son, George, returned this morning from California where they have been visiting the past three weeks.

C. H. Peters has invested heavily in property in the northern part of town, the principal place being the shooting range of the Carson Guard.

There is no doubt the investment will prove a lucrative one.

Mrs. H. H. McCreary was taken very ill Saturday evening but she is greatly improved today.

COMPETENT CLERK WILL RETIRE TO PRIVATE LIFE

Harry Brown, who has been chief clerk at the Hotel Arlington for some time past, will retire to private life on account of failing health and seek to regain that most desirable possession by living outdoors the greater part of the time.

He and his wife will shortly move into the residence lately occupied by Chas. Glasser and family.

THIS IS ADDRESSED TO YOU

Friday evening it will be the proper thing to attend the candidates ball at the opera house, upon the invitation from the candidates themselves.

Party feeling will be forgotten on that occasion, as the ball is given by the candidates of both sides and the evening will be spent in jollity and merriment.

Remember you are invited.

THE SLINGERLAND CONCERT

Saturday evening, November 3, Mrs. C. E. Slingerland will give a concert at Odd Fellows Hall. Mrs. Slingerland deserves a crowded house for she has ever been willing and ready to assist whenever requested.

The program will be entertaining and full of interest and the price of admission is the small sum of fifty cents.

FESTIVAL WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Don't forget the festival of the Ladies of St. Theresa's next Wednesday evening. Incidentally, a bundle of tickets, addressed to Mrs. Julia Cowling, Ramsey, has been lost. Please return to Mrs. Joe. Raycraft.

CANDIDATES BALL NOV. 2

The committee in charge of the candidates' ball to be given by the candidates of both parties at the opera house Friday evening, November 2, is sparing neither time nor expense to make the party a success.

The orchestra is practicing new music that will make you dance whether you want to do so or not and you will go home feeling younger and better for the hibernating up.
